Dr. Michael Jordan
VP, Service to
Armed Forces
American Red
Cross

Our Keynote Speaker...

Dr. Michael Jordan serves as a Humanitarian Executive supporting our US Armed Forces and International Services at the American Red Cross. Prior to joining the Red Cross, Mike served a 27-year career as an executive in Fortune 500 Healthcare.

Mike is also a decorated combat veteran who served as an officer in the US Marine Corps Reserves, enlisting when he was 18. He saw action in Operations Iraqi Freedom and Desert Storm. He also restored a platoon which suffered severe personnel loss in the Beirut Bombing. His decorations include the combat action ribbon with gold star (2nd award). Mike is a proud gold star father of 2nd Lt. Travis Jordan.

Mike has the heart of a volunteer and is a recent recipient of the Real Heroes Recognition award from Alaska and the Heroes for Humanity award from New York.
